PATERSON, N. J., June 28 .- (Special.)-Prior to the game here to-day a shower of rain fell, and aside from rendering the grounds almost unfit for play, caused a small attendance. Those who did visit Olympic Park saw one of the prettiest games witnessed on the local diamond in many a day, and also saw Jake Wells shut the Patersons out. Flaherty pitched for the home club, and was an enigma to the heavy-hitting Richmonds. The Patersons found Sparks safely six times. and at several stages in the game had the bases full, only to be retired by one of the fielders capturing what looked like safe drives. Hargrove's work in centre-field was of the phenomenal order. He played his position without an error, and several times scooped in sky-scrapers from Shannon's territory. His stick work was also brilliant. The only scoring done in the game occurred in the second inning, when three singles and a passed ball allowed Harsingles and a passed out answer in the plate. In this inning Flaherty, of the locals, made a long drive over Shannon's head, which looked like a home-run, but Hargrove sprinted after the ball and fielded it in time to catch the south paw three feet from the plate. The work of Leahy on second was faultless. In Paterson's last inning Heidrick drove a short one to left-field, which looked like a hit, but Seybold, after a splendid run, got under the ball, and the game was over. Both teams suffered at the hands of Umpire Ford. His rankness on base decisions only equalled his work on balls and strikes. To-morrow Mahaf-fey, formerly of the Louisvilles, will be in the box against the Richmonds. The

Dr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Crump, of this city, celebrated the golden anniversary of their marriage last evening, at their residence, No. 216 north Twenty-seventh street. The fates have ordained that occasions of this kind shall come but rarely; a fair fortune had decreed that this should be one of great interest and joy, not to be forgotten by those who attended, in many, many years.

Dr. Crump and Miss Emily A. Savage, a bright and winsome daughter of Captain Nat. Savage, a wealthy planter of New Kent county, were married at the old homestead, June 28, 1848. The whole county was interested in the nuptials of this popular couple, and the festivities were kept up after the wedding night for reward.

A half a century has passed since then A half a century has passed since then, many changes have come, old faces have gradually sunk out of sight, and as they have journeyed along new ones have taken their places. Eleven children, in the course of time, came to their home; six of that number are still living, and these were all present. They are Messrs. William A. and N. R. Crump, of Richmond, and N. S. Crump, of Omaha, Neb.; Mrs. B. P. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., and Misses H. R. Davis, of Atlanta, Ga., and Misses Sallie B. and Emily S. Crump, who reside with their parents.

CHRISTENED BY THE DOCTOR. The reception Dr. and Mrs. Crump ten-dered their friends was held from 5 to 7 dered their friends was held from 5 to 7 in the evening. Just preceding the reception a most beautiful and interesting ceremony occurred. This was the christening exercises of the grandson of Dr. and Mrs. Crump, the son of Mr. N. S. Crump, of Nebraska, for the venerable Doctor himself. Only the family and intimate friends were present. Dr. R. A. timate friends were present, Dr. R. A. Goodwin, rector of St. John's church, of which Dr. Crump is a vestryman, was the officiating minister. Dr. Crump is in-ordinately proud of the boy who bears his name, and well he might be, for he is as bright and pretty a youngster as one would care to see.

ALL GONE BUT HIM.

That was a gay and beauteous throng which gathered fifty years ago to witness this happy union. Gallant men and bright-eyed, fresh, young girls were there, and they laughed and loved, talked and sang as gallant men and fall girls do at marriages to-day. But the mirthful ones have passed away. Every one save three has "joined the great caravan which moves to the pale realm of shade"; has "wrapped the drapery of his couch about him and lain down to pleasant dreams.

Two of the three are Dr. and Mrs. Crump; the other is John Smith, who was a butler at the marriage; stood at the door, as the slave did on such occasions, witnessed the ceremony, and waited on the table at the marriage dinner. He is a white-headed, wrinkled, and kindlyfaced old man now. The days of youth have long since fled him, and his inco-herent talk at times shows that gradually his mind is giving away.

A GUEST THIS TIME. He, too, has left the plantation in New Kent, and is now living in Richmond. More than that; he was an honored guest at the golden wedding yesterday after-noon. A seat was given him at the door, greet the old man, who bowed his white head very low, hat in hand, and said, "Sarvant, Massar." He was asked by a guest about the other wedding, and replied, "I couldn't tell yer 'bout dat all, but it larsted a week."

Among those who called during the evening were Mr. Cyrus Bossieux, son, and daughters; Mrs. Hankins, wife of Dr. Hankins, of Williamsburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Alvey, Mr. Edward Alvey, Mrs. Sailie Hoffman, and Mr. N. R. Savage. A number of presents were received, which were appropriate and handsome. Dr. Crump is well known in Richmond, where he has been a resident since the war. Until the outbreak of hostilities of 1861 he was a practitioner in New Kent. Then he came to Richmond, was a physiin the hospital on Chimborazo Hill, and has ever since made his home here. For a quarter of a century or more he has been a communicant of St. John's Episcopal church, and also a member of the Crump are good, and fortune bids fair to grant the heartfelt and earnest wish of their many friends that they may yet 'live long and prosper."

After the ceremony a reception was tendered to the bride and groom at the home of the bride, on south Main street. The church was most handsomely decorated. A bank of laurel was set in each of the windows. Large bunches of laurel were tastily fastened on the pillars on each side of the altar. The pulpit and railing around the altar were mass of laurel. ARCHBISHOP JANSSENS.

Memorial Services in New Orleans on Anniversary of His Death.

In New Orleans some days ago the anniversary of the death of Archbishop Janssens was observed by impressive memorial services, held in the Cathedral in that city. The imposing ceremony, typifying a people's deathless love for the priest, was conducted by Archbishop Chapelle, and eloquent eulogies were de-livered by Fathers Blenk and Thebault. As far as was possible the scene in the Cathedral when Rev. Father Janssen's body lay in state there was reproduced, and altogether the service was one of great impressiveness.

SICK SOLDIERS FROM CUBA.

Tampa Objects to Their Being Loented There. TAMPA, FLA., June 28.-The steamship

Olivette is momentarily expected, and the disposition of her cargo of sick and wounded in a question of some concern here. The belief that suffering soldiers were to be brought here directly from tine detention whatever, caused apprehension. The hospital train is here, the ostensible purpose of conveying sick men quickly to more northern hopitals, but at the same time a number of hospital tents are being prepared in camp on Tampa heights. This work in-dicates the location of the sick here, If, upon the arrival of the Olivette, the government shows a disposition to do suc a thing, a protest will be made by Hor W. B. Henderson. President of the State Board of Health. Mr. Henderson said today that in such an event he would file protest with the authorities, and ask that they utilize the hospital they have recently erected on Egmont Key.

When Ague Shakes You

you can shake the Ague by using AYER'S AGUE CURE. It is the one certain and infallible cure for that depleting disease. It has been tried in many countries and under various conditions, and has never been known to fail. An old veteran

"You may be interested to know my experience many years ago with Ayer's Ague Cure. The year before the war I was in Kansas. Some twenty of us were engaged in farming, and suddenly all were taken with fever and ague. We tried almost everything without getting any help, till at last I sent to the city and procured a bottle of Ayer's Ague Cure. I recovered at once. The others followed my example, and they, too, recovered. Every one in camp took the remedy and was cured by it. I went all through the war, have lived in thirteen different states of the Union, and have never had the ague since." O. B. SMITH, St. Augustine, Fla.

GUARD TENTS FULL ADMINISTRATRIX SALF OF THIRD VIRGINIA REGIMENT

BLOCKADE-RUNNERS.

Camp-Second and Fourth.

ARRIVAL OF THE JUNE PAY-ROLLS.

Smacks of Revenge-Cost of a Little Liquid Transaction-Attached to CAMP ALGER, VA., June 28 .- (Special.) Several more prisoners were captured to day, and the ten guard tents of the Third Virginia Regiment are taxed to hold all that are in them at present. The total number amounts to over sixty, embracing nearly every company in the regiment Companies A, I, and L have furnished the largest number-ten men from Com pany I being captured out of lines at one time. The longer the men stay here the more they attempt to run the blockade and last night no less than ten shots were fired to frighten these blockade runners by sentries posted at different points in the woods.

Much to the surprise of every one, the pay-rolls for June arrived this afternoon and the first sergeants are at work them now. They will be completed tonight, and the men will sign to-morrow for a full month's pay. The early arrival of the rolls would seem to indicate that the paymaster will be around some day during the first week in July. SMACKS OF REVENGE.

A tale which smacks of reverge comes from Company C, as follows: Corporal Tuggle, of that company, reported some of the men in his tent a short time ago for disorderly conduct, but yesterday they got even with him. He was seen to sell a pint of whiskey for $1, and was immediately reported to Captain Allen, who, according to the regulations, recommended that he be reduced to ranks. This was at once done, and Private Powers has been promoted to the vacancy.

The next issue of rations to the Third Regiment will be from the commissary department at headquarters instead of from the regimental commissary department, as has been the case heretofore. Each company will have to be provided with a wagon and mules, and the company wagoners will probably be kept busy. Colonel Naile has been notified that the regiment is temporarily attached to the division commanded by General M C. Butler, of South Carolina, and here after reports will be sent over each morning to the division adjutant's office. Company I, the only one in the regiment which had not been supplied with the new uniforms, was furnished throughout to-day, and each man also received two blue shirts.

MUCH SICKNESS. A heavy thunder-storm this afternoon has cooled the atmosphere after a day of oppressive heat. There is a great deal of ickness all over Camp Alger, caused by the hot weather, but the men of our regiment keep in remarkable health, and no cases of prostration have been reported. Religious services were to have been conducted here to-night by one of the Alexandria ministers, but the storm interfered and they will be held to-morrow night, when there will also be several singers here from that city. The ser vices which Chaplain Ferguson started some time ago are kept up, and many conversions have resulted.

SECOND AND FOURTH.

They Receive Rifles-Fine Mules-Personal Points.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., June 28 .- (Spe cial.)-The Second and Fourth regiments received their rifles to-day. The Second received seventy-nine to a company, but the Fourth only received upward of 500 in all. It is thought more will be issued to-day.

The Third Brigade was reviewed by General Arnold, division commander, this afternoon. A large crowd of ladies and gentlemen witnessed the review, and the splendid appearance of the brigade provoked immense applause. Private Kellum, of Company D. Second Regiment, is very ill with typhoid-fever. So far as I can ascertain the general health of the regiment is excellent. Several boxes were received by the Biues' 'companies to-day,

Sergeant Lane, one of the chief musi-cians of the Fourth, is having gratifying success in organizing his field music band, and he and his men already furnish good music for drills and guard mounts. The band of the Fourth has not yet been secured, though it is said there is some prospect of securing one made up of the Blues Band, and old Stonewall Lovers of mules would find much to admire in those belonging to the Seventh Corps, and just received. They are magnificent animals, and the teamsters say they never saw better. They are used for wagons and ambulances. Four are at-tached to the latter, but the wagons are nearly always drawn by six. The wagoners say mules are much better than horses for army service, not alone be-cause they are hardier, but because they will not be imposed on. He will do all he should be asked, and no more. A collection of the stories which these drivers tell to illustrate the intellectuality of the mule would be a highly interesting book, though somewhat Gulliverian in character.

Company M, of the Fourth, formerly B, of the Blues, is the color company of the regiment. Private Kelly has had the honor of carrying the colors upon the only occasion of their being taken in Private Kramer, of Company A. Se-cond Regiment, who has been quite iil at a private house in Jacksonville, is much improved. His father is with him. One of the most popular officers in the Second Regiment, or any other regiment for that matter, is Captain Craighill, of Company E (Lynchburg Zouaves). men are thoroughly devoted to him, and with cause, for the constant zeal with which he looks out for their interests has caused Coionel Baker to call him his "kicker." Captain Craighill is the senior captain in the regiment, though of the youngest, and if there is another major commissioned he will almost certainly have the laurel leaves on his shoulder straps.

There would be little surprise manirested if the detail of First-Lieutenant Percy, of Company E, as brigade ord-nance officer is made permanent. He has shown himself extremely efficient. and has become very popular at head-

Private Lacy Robinson of Company K (Staunton), well known in social circles in that city and Lexington, has the remarkably fine record of never having been in the guard-house, never having been late, and never having received a reprimand from an officer. It is thought a corporal's or sergeant's chevrons are waiting for him when the company is re-cruited up to 106 men.

MURDERER WAIVES EXAMINATION. The Funeral of His Victim-Admirable Management of the City Sergeant-Firm Bearing of the Police-

By Whose Order? PETERSBURG, VA., June 28 .- (Special.) The funeral of Mr. George H. Westmore land, the victim of the West-End Park tragedy, took place this afternoon from the High-Street Methodist Episcopal church, of which he was a member. The church was crowded with people gathered to show their sympathy and respect,

The services, which were conducted by

Rev. E. T. Dadmun, assisted by other ministers, were exceedingly solemn and impressive. Mrs. Westmoreland, the widow of the murdered young man, has been very ill, in consequence of the sudden and great shock she received.

The city is absolutely quiet to-night, and has resumed its normal condition, There will probably be no further exhibition of the excitement of the last two nights. The law will be allowed to take its course, and at the July term of the Hustings Court, Robert Morton, the murderer, will be put on trial for his life. He was brought before the Mayor this morning for preliminary hearing, but he waived examination and asked to be sent on, which was done. The case was called in regular order, and disposed of as any ordinary case on the docket, and the prisoner was remanded back to juil. He

death of Mr. Westmoreland, and then had nothing to say. ADMIRABLE MANAGEMENT. City-Sergeant Watson, with his deputies, remained at the jail prepared for any emergency that should arise, all Sunday night and all last night. The Sergeant was very firm and cool and de-termined to uphold the majesty of the law. With such assistance as he had he could have defended the jail success-fully against a large force. His action was admirable throughout, and has been much commended. The temperate and firm action of the police on both nights is entitled to great praise. THE COLORED MILITARY.

It is stated to-day that the man who called up and informed the Governor last night of a probable attempt to lynch Morton was a member of the Petersburg Guard, one of our colored military com-panies. It is further stated that with. out call or suggestion from the authori-ties this company was under arms at their armory from an early until a late hour last night—for what reason is best known to themselves. A a late hour the captain telephoned Sergeant Watson that his company was at the armory, and ready for service at his call. The Ser-geant promptly responded that he did not need and would not need their services. At no time did the Sergeant ask for or ed any troops for the protection of the GENERAL NEWS. The health officer reports sixty-eight deaths in this city during the month ending June 26th. Of those who died, 22 were whites, and 46 colored; under 1 year, 27; over 50 years, 15. Chief-of-Police Perkinson to-day received a letter from Marshai Hamilton, of Baltimore, requesting him to look out for a white boy, who had ran away from his home, in that city.

A number of gentiemen of this city to-day enjoyed a delightful barbecue and picnic at Swift Creek, given by Lieuten-ant R. S. Chandler, of the police corps, veral members of the Common Coun attended it. CAME HOME TO QUALIFY.
